

Chicago Fire Reporter

You are to pretend you are a reporter for the Chicago Tribune and it is the day after the Great Chicago Fire. You are to write a poem or a short song about the fire telling of the events in order to tell the world about the fire. Please draw and color a picture in the square which would be published with the poem.

